

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Gateway Bike Plan is the result of a cooperative effort between the Great Rivers Greenway District, East-West Gateway Council of Governments, City of St. Louis, the Counties of St. Louis and St. Charles, Metro, Trailnet and the Missouri Department of Transportation. The Great Rivers Greenway District provided funding for development of the Plan and played a key role in coordinating and reviewing the development of the document.

*Great Rivers Greenway District Board of Director approval of plan on August 9, 2011

Thank you to the following for providing meeting space to engage the community throughout the project.

City of Brentwood, City of Des Peres, Forest Park Forever, City of Maryland Heights, City of Richmond Heights, City of St. Louis, City of St. Peters, City of Webster Groves, Missouri Department of Transportation and the University of Missouri-St. Louis

Committees

The agencies and organizations listed below comprised the Core Stakeholder Group. Working in partnership with the Technical and Citizen Advisory committees, the Core Stakeholder Group provided guidance and support for the development of the Plan, including defining the Bicycle Network, and the programs and policies that are instrumental for successful implementation of the Gateway Bike Plan.

Core Stakeholders

The Core Stakeholder Group was a group of lead agencies and advocates who were involved in guiding the plan development. These individuals were also included in the Technical Advisory Committee.

City of St. Louis – John Kohler	Metro (Bi-state Development Agency) – Mark Phillips	St. Charles County – Gary Podhorsky	St. Louis Regional Bicycle Federation (Merged with Trailnet in 2011) – Patty Vinyard
East West Gateway Council of Governments – Jim Wild, Rachael Pawlak	Missouri Department of Transportation – Tom Blair, Laura Ellen	St. Louis County – Michael Bardot, Mike Zeltmann
Great Rivers Greenway District – Todd Antoine		Trailnet – Kevin Neill

Citizens Advisory Committee (CAC)

The citizens and bicycle advocates who served on the Plan’s Citizens Advisory Committee provided considerable input and advice throughout the planning process, as well as draft plan review assistance and voluntary event coordination at several public meetings.
